

EVERYTHING IS CONNECTED

CONGRESS ON ECOLOGY AND THEOLOGY

FEBRUARY 7, 2024

CENTRE FOR DIALOGUE AT CAMPUS RIEDBERG

14 – 20 UHR
RAUM HZ 10
HÖRSAALZENTRUM
CAMPUS WESTEND

Fachbereich 07

- 14:00 Welcome Address: Prof. A. Middelbeck-Varwick, Dean
Prof. B. Brüne, Vice President
- 14:10 Lecture Prof. Stefano Zamagni (Univ. Bologna) “Resilience of people and ecosystems under climate stress: the Christian integral ecology proposal”
Presents Prof. Thomas Schmidt
- 15:00 Break
- 15:15 First panel
„Culture as bridge between humans and Creation; inculturation of faith as bridge between care for humanity and care for Creation”
- Lecture of Prof. Birgit Weiler (Univ. Antonio Ruiz de Montoya, Lima): “Care for humanity and care for the earth: an imperative in times of climate emergency and ecological crisis”
 - Lecture of Fr. Joshtrom Kureethadam SDB (Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, Rome): “Incarnation: Implications for an Ecological Theology”
 - Lecture of Prof Rodrigue Naortangar SJ (Institut de Théologie de la Compagnie de Jésus, Ivory Coast): “Inculturation of Creation from a Pan-African perspective”
- Discussion
Moderation: Prof. Anja Middelbeck-Varwick
- 17:15 Break
- 18:00 Second Panel
„A revolutionary Christianity. Church of the Exodus? Compassion for all Creation and rediscovering the spirit of nature as a Catholic answer to the ecological crisis”
- Lecture of Prof. Fabrice Hadjadj (Philanthropos Institute, Fribourg):
“Ecology: between tragedy and Transfiguration”
 - Lecture of Prof. Jürgen Manemann (Forschungsinstitut für Philosophie Hannover): “Towards a Revolutionary Christianity in an Age of Ecological and Climate Crisis”
- Discussion
Moderation: Prof. Christof Mandry
- 20:00 Get Together