

Many-body tunneling in an optical lattice

(Julia Link, Universität Heidelberg)

A bound pair of two bosons in an optical lattice displays diverse scattering processes at an external potential barrier. For different barrier heights, tunneling, reflection and dissociation of the bound pair are allowed. This talk will show you different approaches for solving this scattering problem and the resulting behavior of the bound pair.