Renormalization with Flow equations

Abstract: The flow equations of the renormalization group give access to a simple and fully rigorous (a rare coincidence) proof of perturbative renormalizability in field theory. We present this proof for the massive Euclidean self-interacting scalar field. Then we give a short overview on extensions to more complicated theories and on future directions.